Date of decision: 06/11/96

ORAL JUDGMENT :

1. This Special Civil Application is directed against the detention order dated 3-5-96 passed by the Police Commissioner, Ahmedabad City detaining the petitioner under the provisions of the Gujarat Prevention of Anti Social Activities Act, 1985 (hereinafter referred to as 'the Act'). The detention order was executed on 3-5-96 itself and since then the petitioner is under detention lodged at Surat District Prison, Surat.

2. This Special Civil Application was filed in this Court on 24-6-96 and on 25-6-96 Rule returnable on 22-7-96 was issued. So far neither any reply has been filed on behalf of the respondents nor any affidavit of the detaining authority has been filed.

3. The grounds enclosed with the detention order show that 4 criminal cases under the provisions of Bombay Prohibition Act were registered against the petitioner. Besides these, the detaining authority has taken into consideration statements of certain witnesses against the petitioner with reference to the incidents dated 20-4-96 and 24-4-96. The petitioner has been found to be engaged in anti social activities. Accordingly the detention order was passed.

4. The detention order has been challenged on more than one grounds. But the learned counsel for the petitioner has kept her arguments confined to the question that even if the allegations and materials against the petitioner are taken to be correct on its face value, it can not be said that a case of breach of public order is made out. At the most it is a case of breach of law and order.

5. For the reasons given in the judgment dated 4-10-96 in Special Civil Application No.3879/96 it is found that the allegations and materials, on the basis of which the detention order has been passed, do not constitute a case of breach of public order and it is at the most a case of breach of law and order. The detention order, therefore, can not be sustained in the eye of law.

6. Accordingly this Special Civil Application is allowed and the impugned detention order dated 3-5-96 passed by the Police Commissioner, Ahmedabad City is hereby quashed and set aside and the petitioner's detention is declared to be illegal. The respondents are directed to release the petitioner and set him at liberty forthwith, if not required in any other case. Rule is made absolute.
